American universities are in crisis for undermining humanistic values that further cause divisions among its citizens. The ideologies against racism and sexism are promoted on college campuses as professors overlook Chaucer, Milton, Shakespeare, and American history in favor of identity politics and ideology. This problem is traced to academia's belief that America is deeply racist and sexist. In The Diversity Delusion, Heather Mac Donald denounces academia for its modern liberalism and the damage it has done to America's educational system. The country is producing citizens who think there is always a reason for grievance, and this does not bode well for America.

Mac Donald is the bestselling author of War on Cops and The Burden of Bad Ideas.
