JANUARY BREEZE: There's a new girl in town, and she's breathing life into The Coach House. Although charmed by Willow Goodhope's wild nature, elderberry gifts, and outrageous laughter, the folks at The Coach House can't help but wonder what brings the mysterious Willow to this dead end place. Kathy isn't so sure about the wild child living right across the driveway, but she's doing all her neighbor's a favor and keeping an eye on Ms. Goodhope. Through her binoculars. And she's rather shocked by what she sees.

FEBRUARY EMBERS: Richard and Patti Davis' days stretch out endlessly before them, but lately, Richard has taken notice of the new neighbor in Space #12. Will Patti lose the only man she's ever loved to the green-eyed earth girl? Or will Willow steal both their hearts?

MARCH WHISPERS: Joe Sanderson believes that living simply is simply better living. He gardens, he cooks, he entertains Vivian. Everything is going just fine...then along comes Ms. Willow, with her whispering shadows and her elderberry pie, reminding him of what it means to be a man.

APRIL SHADOWS: The Cat Lady rarely sets foot outside her trailer during the light of day. But one morning, Willow shows up at her door, knocking her perfectly-ordered world off its axis. And when the stillness is further interrupted by the Shadowman, Shelly must confront her past in order to embrace her future.

MAY ENCHANTMENT: Managing The Coach House keeps Eddie busy, if not exactly fulfilled. But the new girl in Space #12 is stirring up the neighborhood. Willow's making waves, and Eddie's a little swept off his feet. When he comes face to face with the Shadowman in the middle of the night, Eddie questions everything he thought he knew about himself.

JUNE MELODY: Myra believes her doctor when he says she's going to die, but when she encounters a rattlesnake, she realizes that maybe she needs to start living again, rather than spending her last years waiting to die.

JULY MADNESS: Donny Banks is trouble with a big T. Edith keeps hoping if she helps her baby out one more time, he'll get his head on straight. But big brother Eddie has had enough. This time, Donny's knocking on the wrong door - Willow Goodhope's - and Eddie's having none of it.

AUGUST MEMORIES: Al's job keeps him busy during the day and his Bud keeps him company at
