Not when Cora Maclean's cheating scumbag of an ex disappears with a ring that has been in her family for a century. It's the putting her life back together afterwards that's the problem. How hard can it possibly be to go to Spain, find her ex and persuade him to return the heirloom? Her plans definitely do not include rekindling a decade-old crush on a man who once broke her heart.

Former special forces operative turned businessman, Lucas Hart, has a job to do—one that now includes keeping reckless Cora Maclean out of danger. So what if she's more gorgeous than he remembers? She once hurt him badly and that's not something he's inclined to forget. His sole aim is to finish the job while keeping her safe, and he has absolutely no intention of falling under her spell again. Besides, Cora has sworn off men for now.

Or has she?
