Brock "Red Fox" Alexander is on medical leave for injuries sustained during his last OP. He lost two men, including a man he went through training with. The two men were closer than brothers. Along with grief, he feels guilty—he's always been drawn to Shawna Sutton, now a widow, but she was off limits even though her husband wasn't faithful and treated her more like a possession. But now? She's still off limits, for different reasons. He has his own secrets and doesn't think the not-so-grieving widow would understand that his desire to command isn't limited to his job. He's a Dom—and he wants nothing more than to take charge of her. Will she let him, or will his dark energy find another willing outlet?
