Originally published in 1992, Just Another War broke the barrier between traditional photojournalism and the art world. The poetry/commentary by Cervenka juxtaposed against Jarecke's timeless black and white images brings an understanding of war (and the politics behind it) to the viewer in a way that traditional reportage often fails to do.

Haunting when it was first seen over twenty years ago, it is even more so today due to the prophetic nature of the book.

Optimized for retina display. Audio commentary by Jarecke on every image. Contact sheets from Jarecke's entire take. A short film about "The Face of War".
